ARCHONS REPORT

by Bill Dryden

What has made Beta Phi chapter surge forward as it has this year? With but a limited brotherhood of twenty men, we have participated and excelled in every campus activity. Our most successful endeavors include the Christmas Party for underprivileged children plus an outstanding homecoming float. I believe there is one basic reason why we have come on so strong thus far this year, UNITY; unity within the brotherhood which is the highest ideal of our fraternity. Whenever there is a task to be done, a simple request to a brother or pledge will accomplish this deed. Everyone is ready and willing to work for a common goal, the success and progress of Pi Kappa Phi.

A WORD FROM OUR ADVISOR

by Dr. Tom Sayetta

During the school year 1964-1965, I attended some of the Pi Kappa Phi socials as a guest. These were enjoyable evenings. During 1965-1966, my friendship with the Pi Kappa men grew. Besides chaperoning the regular parties, to which I always looked forward, I had a very memorable weekend at Myrtle Beach, S.C. for the Rose Ball social. Although this was my first Rose Ball, I can't imagine a better one; everything was carefully planned and followed schedule--a good time was had by all.

Founder's Day was one of the highlights of the year; Bernard Jones spoke and gave a fantastic demonstration of memory. The sports teams continued their winning ways. These and other events made 1965-1966 a successful year for the fraternity.

When September of 1966 rolled around the membership and spirit were low due to the large number of brothers that graduated (finally) in May, but the younger brothers got organized and things started happening. The morale was great when a record number of rushees visited the house. The brothers searched for quality in their prospective pledges and got it. The screening of the rushees for bids was quite heated and exciting. The brothers considered not only how could the man help Pi Kappa Phi, but how can Pi Kappa Phi help this individual become a man.

At the November activation ceremony I had the honor and privilege of being initiated into Beta Phi chapter as an alumnus member. The initiation ceremony was impressive and for this I would like to thank the brothers. The weekly meetings are both interesting and lively.

The activities so far this year have been parties, sports, rushing, a Christmas party for underprivileged children, and a well done job of remodeling the off campus party room. The brothers are looking forward to their first Alumni banquet coming up in February. I believe they are moving forward with vigor. It has been a pleasure for me to work with them as their faculty adviser.

INTRAMURALS

by Ron Siegfried

Fall Quarter saw the Pi Kapp's jump into the lead in the annual race for the President's Cup. With many of last season's stalwarts departed from the hallowed walls of 1301 E. 5th Street, this years contingent saw their role as defending champs reach paramount heights.

Probably the most rewarding, and at the same time, disappointing sport, was football. After an opening game stomping of arch rival Lambda Chi Alpha, the football sextet rolled convincing over it's remaining opponents.

Only Kappa Alpha, with two last minute TD's and extra points which eeked out a one point win, managed to mar the gold and whites perfect slate. Although gaining first place points, another squeaker with KA proved to our misdoing, so downtrodden our we with as yet not a gridiron trophy to show for our efforts. The team roster included:

Jimmy Dail- converted from end to signal caller, Jim was the mainstay of this years team. A triple threat, Jim was superb in avoiding the pass rush and tossing the nice soft bomb.

Richard Scott- the man that made the wheels turn. A real expert at play calling, Rich was adept at picking out opposing team weaknesses.

George Resseguie- A real veteran who finally got his chance this year. "Ress", whose bold legs remind one of Floyd Little, was a real speed demon and a terror in the open field.

Bill Dryden- Another solid ballplayer, Billy always brought his own rooting section to the games. Known for his outstanding defense.

Jack Cotten- Did an excellent job of snapping the ball.

Jack also made some excellent pressure catches.

The remainder of the team included Gary Nicholds (defensive rusher), Ron Siegfried (a little bit of everything; mostly known for his booming kickoffs) and Reese Helms (?).

In Badminton, brother Ron Hignite again proved to be king of the nets. "Higgie", who also is a top member of the tennis team, easily walked away with the title for the second straight year. Congragulations brother Hignite!

The Pi Kapp volleyball team also suffered two heart-breaking setbacks to finish third in the league. Team members included Ron Siegfried (1st team all star), Jimmy Dail and Richard Scott (2nd team all star), and George Resseguie, Jim Mather, Bill Dryden, and Jack Cotton.

Cross Country saw the gold and white finish fourth. Probably the biggest surprise of the meet was "lightning" Ron Siegfried who finished a high 13th. The remaining runners in order of their finishing were; Richard Scott, George Resseguie, Jimmy Dail and Tom Yopp (tie), and pledge Baxter Philips.

Although presently in the lead for the President's Cup, this years team has a long hard road to travel. Richard Scott has departed as "coach", but by this, those that he leaves behind will have added incentive to keep up his winning tradition.

WARDENS WIT

by Jim Mather

Fall Quarter rush saw the pledging of eleven neophytes. Called officially the Nu's and unofficially "Mather's Morons", they consist of the following pledges:

Dennis Barbour- alias "Smiley" or the "Dumb Jock". Dennis hails from Raleigh, N.C. - currently plays varsity baseball.

Mike Green- alias "Carrot top" or the "Red Baron". Mike is from Ashville, N.C. One of the biggest of the Nu troublemakers, Mike can be seen just about any-day in push-up position. Likes to take ice baths too.

Doug Boffer- carrot tops sidekick, always smiling, especially after getting in more trouble. Doug is from Ashville and judging by his pants, is a frustrated Sunoco agent.

Rick Judson- known as "quickwit", Rick's a freshmen from Charlotte. Participated in freshman cross country. Can be heard emitting such infamous words as Huh?, What? and Duhh!

John Usilton- a junior from Denton, Md. John runs hurdles in varsity track. Alias "the flash", possor of the only brain in the Nu class.

- Archie Simmons- Freshman from Sanford, N.C. Arch is the pool hustler of the class. Also, a good drummer. Arch is known for kicking pledges and drinking PJ.
- John Burleson- Sophomore from Albemarle, N.C. One of the stalwarts of the Pi Kapp basketball team. John was seen one night dating a certain Sharon M- rumor has it that John might pledge pin her.
- Mike Cavendish- Sophomore from Greenville, N.C. The greatest show shiner of this band of misfits. Mike is gifted with typical pledge talents-- He's clumsy, inefficient and a thief. Last seen carrying a road sign.
- Baxter Phillips- pledge class president, a junior from Colonial Heights Va. Baxter is the Sterling Moss of the group, especially after a Saturday night party.
- Charlie Hovis- Freshman from Charlotte, N.C. The "runt" of the litter, he's a fine wrestler. Last seen locked together with the Red Baron.
- Stan Foster- Freshman from Charlotte, N.C. Foster was voted as having the best laugh in the fraternity beating brother George Resseguie who was seeking an unprecedented fifth year in a row.
- Jim Mather, the Warden, when asked to comment on their progress, just shook his head and walked away. Giving up on them already Jim?

SOCIAL REPORT

by Ron Siegfried

The Pi Kapp social calendar for Fall quarter proved out to be more fruitful than anticipated. While building our financial assets, parties were at a limit in number, but not in fun or frolic. Rush parties were held with the Jokers 7 while the Attractions helped make Homecoming the typical spirited reunion that it is.

Successful socials were held with Alpha Phi, Chi Omega, and Alpha Xi Delta Sororities. The Chi Omega social was especially lively due to the assistance of the Jokers 7 who kindly consented to "practice" with us that evening. The Alpha Xi's and Beta Phi's also conducted a successful Christmas party for underprivileged children in the Chapter room.

The annual Christmas stag party again ignited the brothers Yuletide spirits. Many "unusual" gifts were exchanged, in fact a little unusual to be mentioned here.

When school re-convened after the Christmas Holidays, the brothers and pledges undertook the unenviable task of remodeling the chapter room. After two weeks of extensive labor, the chapter room took on a new face. A new, raised bandstand, two bars with lowered ceilings, and lowered lighting are but some of the Niche's new features. Founders Day will be the inaugural for our new facility, definitely one of the finest in the Greenville area.

Speaking of Founder's Day, the years event will be held February 10 and 11th. Due to a lack of funds, a formal banquet will not be held this year, however the brothers, pledges, and alumni are planning on congregating at a local restaurant for a meal and a few comments by our faculty advisor, Dr. Tom Sayetta, and former traveling counselor and Beta Phi alumni, Mr. Dan Ray. Parties have been planned at the Niche with the entertainment being supplied by James Brown Jr.

Robert Parker, our social chairman, has done an excellent job thus far this year with his position. Plans are now being made for Rose Ball and a lively Spring Quarter.

WINTER RUSH

by C. Reese Holms

Informal Winter rush resulted in the pledging of eleven promising men. The Xi pledge class are: Steve Anderson, Durham, N.C.; Jim Culp, Pineville, N.C.; Terry Harpe, Charlotte, N.C.; J. C. Harris, Wilson, N.C.; Bill Kinsey, Charlotte, N.C.; Michael Knight, Fayetteville, N.C.; Costa Lampros, Fayetteville, N.C.; Mike McGuirk, Arlington, Va.; Frank Muir, Goldsboro, N.C.; Larry Mulvihill, Havelock, N.C.; and Bicky Woodard, Raleigh, N.C.

The Xi's chose as their officers the following: Bicky Woodard, president; Costa Lampros, treasurer; Mike McGuirk, Chaplin; Bill Kinsey, social chairman.

The zippy Xis known otherwise as "Reese's Retards", have exhibited their gusty spirit by participating in the recent pledge campaign of "carry off all brothers". Although unsuccessful, the Xis gave it that ol' pledge try. A few of the more daring Xis have gone above and beyond the call of pledge stunts. Costa Lampros, alias "the Greek", sprang unexpectedly from the corner of the house and peppered brother Chip Butler squarely on the back with a snowball and then dashed to safety before Chip could administer the usual retaliatory measures, the familiar push up position. The Xis have been able to divert some of their abundant energy into constructive forms also, by spending much time and hard work on the remodeling of the chapter room in addition to their regular pledge duties around the house. The Xis have displayed great interest, spirit, desire, and willingness to work, and are rapidly progressing to their eventual induction into the brotherhood.

ALUMNI NEWS
by George Rességuie

Many former BQ brothers were present at the annual New Year's Eve bash at Raleigh. Seen among those present were Alan Fearing, now still in flight school at Pensacola; Charles Wohlneck, presently helping direct B-52's for the USAF; Charles F. Webster, the Adolf Rupp of Greensboro Junior High School Basketball circles; Bobby Childress, unemployed at present; Larry Phifer, Jimmy Dail, and Bruce McLamb--all employed in Raleigh; John Thompson, playing OCS in some remote Army outpost; and Taddy Martin and Otis Bailey, both teaching in and around Burlington, N.C.

Other news of those departed that has drifted back to 1301 includes the following:

Walt Jacobs--currently in graduate school at American University, Washington, D.C.

John Gaffney--employed in Philadelphia.

Charlie Martin--teaching in Rocky Mount, N.C.

Jeff Wayman--stationed in Viet-Nam (USMC)

David Knoch--US Army in Germany

Doug Williams--heir apparent to George Coffman in Greenville.

Ed Brock--employed in a management position in Suffolk.

Bob Hood--USAF, stationed in the 49th state.

Miles Barefoot--USAF, officer training school.

Chip Chesson and Dan Ray--employed with DuPont in Kinston, N.C.

Everett Cameron--coaching basketball in Hendersonville.

Jimmy Williams and Charlie Davis--searching!

by Jim
Mather

Wedding Bells rang this year for Brother George Styron who wed Miss Jean Lovett.

BQ 1 has finally fallen. This March Miss Pat Eubanks of Maysville, N.C. will be the lucky bride of Brother Dan Ray.

Pins, pins, who's got the Pi Kapp pins? Apparently not the brothers. Those fallen since last summer were Ron Siegfried pinned to Miss Rita Tingle of Milford, Del., Jim Mather to Miss Mary Halliday, Kappa Alpha Theta, Ohio Wesleyan University, and Howard Sheble to Wanda Hariss, Smithfield, N.C.

The lavaliers are seen in abundance around the East Carolina Campus. Brothers lavaliered are:

Bill Marks to Glenda Johnston, Charlotte, N.C.

Rod Justus to Betsy Young, Aulander, N.C.

Bob Gunter to Carolyn Maddrey, Winston-Salem, N.C.

Dickie Littlepage to Jean Harkey, Sanford, N.C.
